

Statement from Governor Ronnie Musgrove regarding open container laws:

“I have consistently supported efforts to protect drivers on Mississippi roads. I signed legislation lowering the Blood Alcohol Content level to .08, and vetoed legislation that would have increased the percentage of alcohol in certain beverages. These actions were taken to help save lives. An open container law in Mississippi would save lives as well, and I would support such legislation and willingly sign it into law.”