

Arkansas Democrat Gazette Request
030405

From a state's perspective, it is extremely disheartening that the DRA has moved so far away from the successful ARC model of a grant making authority.

The DRA Staff needs to be working with the designated partners – the 8 states and their governors- to build up the Delta instead of delaying projects that bring new jobs.