

FOR YOUR REVIEW:

Request from WAPT, - 12/18/03

Statement regarding DOJ lawsuit against Mississippi regarding Oakley and Columbia

“The Department of Human Services has been working hard with Attorney General Mike Moore and the Department of Justice to improve conditions at Oakley and Columbia training schools to protect our children.”

Any other questions:

“Again, the Department of Human Services has worked hard with the Attorney General to make improvements at Oakley and Columbia. I have full confidence in the Attorney General to handle this matter.”