

Statement from Governor Musgrove for Hattiesburg American:

“The shootings at the Lockheed Martin facility were a senseless tragedy, with innocent people who lost their lives at the hands of a disturbed individual. We have seen incidents such as this before across America, and sadly, we are now faced with it here at home. We are a strong and close-knit state and we will recover.”