

Marshall Bennett's tenure as treasurer will be remembered as one of service to the people of Mississippi. He has set a high standard for public service, and I wish him well as he prepares for the challenges of his new career.