

It is time to complete this work and go home. Members of the legislature should be at home with their families tonight and at their churches tomorrow. The House passed a compromise bill yesterday. The solution is there to fund this budget without raising taxes or spending all of our savings. The house compromise has bi-partisan support and the concept passed in both houses originally.