

We continue to work hard to ensure that all Mississippians have access to a quality education regardless of race. We have seen great progress through the adequate education program, teacher pay raise, computers in the classroom and by placing schools first in our budget. However, I am against racial quotas for admission to our colleges and universities. The path to a better society is by investing in education. When we do we attract quality high paying jobs that build great communities.