

I support the death penalty. I disagree with what Governor Ryan has done in Illinois. Every case presents a different and unique set of circumstances to be considered. I review each request for clemency in death penalty cases individually and on the facts of the case.