

Regarding $288K for BRAC:

“The focus right now is on keeping our schools open. As I said in my State of the State address, however, our universities and colleges play a critical role in economic development, and it is important to ensure they have the support they need to fulfill that role.”