

Statement for Laurel Leader-Call Father's Day article:

“The most important job I have is that of father to two wonderful children. It is a blessing every day to watch Carmen Rae play basketball or softball and to hunt with Jordan. Regardless of the many commitments we all have, the most important one is to our children.”