

A Proclamation
By
Governor Ronnie Musgrove

WHEREAS, in 1902, Dr. H.W. Crenshaw gave the Yazoo Mississippi Valley Railroad the right of way to build a railroad across his land; and

WHEREAS, the railroad provided opportunities to develop and soon people began buying land there to build their homes near the railroad; and

WHEREAS, the town that developed was named in honor of the man who made the railroad possible; and

WHEREAS, this is representative of Mississippi's generous spirit and desire to keep moving Mississippi forward; and

WHEREAS, poised on the advent of its 100th Anniversary, the City of Crenshaw, Mississippi will indeed celebrate a wonderful milestone and this celebration will mark 100 years of dedication and love for it's community:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ronnie Musgrove, Governor of the State of Mississippi, hereby proclaim August 23, 2003, in honor of the 100th Anniversary of

and its countless accomplishments over the years.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Mississippi to be affixed.

DONE in the City of Jackson, August 23, 2003, in the two hundred and twenty-seventh year of the United States of America.

RONNIE MUSGROVE
