

A Proclamation
by Governor Ronnie Musgrove

WHEREAS, philanthropy is the embodiment of concern for fellow human beings; and

WHEREAS, those who participate in philanthropic causes and good works demonstrate the finest qualities of human nature—unselfishness, kindness, generosity, goodwill, and concern for the overall well-being of our world and the human race; and

WHEREAS, Lelia Clark Wynn, has diligently worked demonstrated repeatedly her deep concern for others and for these fine qualities has been chosen Philanthropist of the Year; and

WHEREAS, Hope Carter and Daphne Clark have contributed their time, energy, and talents to volunteer fundraising for the Dr. Hugh G. Ward Playground at Parham Bridges Park in Jackson. For the successful efforts, they have been chosen Volunteer Fundraisers of the Year; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that we honor and express appreciation to these individuals and groups who are committed to the performance of good deeds on behalf of all living things;

NOW, THEREFORE, I Ronnie Musgrove, Governor of the State of Mississippi, do hereby proclaim June 22, 2000

PHILANTHROPY DAY

in the State of Mississippi.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Mississippi to be affixed.

DONE in the City of Jackson, June 13, 2000, in the two hundred and twenty-fourth year of the United States of America.

RONNIE MUSGROVE
GOVERNOR

