

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Wednesday, April 3, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Deep Medicaid cuts eyed

School funding up, but still short some \$60M

Recession spurs return to classes

OUR VIEW

Editorials

Open meetings: What do public officials fear? Public?

Sheriff's Dept.: McMillin gets last laugh, but no joke

Judges: Election compromise compromised

Keeping inmates in prison cheaper

Tax Commission needs to get busy

Legislature's priorities out of whack

Cochran's reform vote shows honor

State's tax refund explanation pitiful

For Pike, good-ol'-boy system rules

Time to review ties with French

New House lines prop up north, marginalize south Miss.

Public officials will continue to break the law

Justice Dept.: No map ruling

Financial literacy pays off

Automaker offering classes

Ala. becoming auto industry's Southern hub

Manufacturing road still rough

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

School fund revision brings districts fewer dollars

Home field advantage?

Indian casino in Hancock?

Legislature adopts Vision 21

Burlington plant preparing to close down

Catfish labeling now law

Nissan will offer supplier workshops

May the sun always shine on Deer Island

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

U.S. 78 interstate change uncertain

Adequate Education bill goes to governor

Medicaid cuts to affect nursing homes, drugs

A glance at possible Miss. Medicaid cuts
House, Senate adopt changes for College Board
House, Senate adopt new highway program , send to governor
Background checks on nursing home, hospital hires goes to gov.
Legislative conferees agree to judicial appointments
Legal expenses bill tops \$256,000 for attorney general
Tri-County Alliance keeps eye on new development

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

- Miss. lawmakers OK road plan, including new north-south route
- DeSoto would lose \$2 million in school-fund revision
- Miss. lawmakers vote to slash Medicaid funds
- Musgrove signs domestic violence bill
- Evictions loom, warns Medicaid chief in Miss.
- Miss. gets a budget of once-only funds, cuts

School fund plan unfair, say DeSoto lawmakers

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Deal reached on College Board bill
Legislature approves changing College Board appointments
Legislature passes key reform bill
Supporters promise to keep reform alive
Lawmakers face multitude of needs, but not enough cash

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

Clarke County residents meet new congressman

Burlington denim plant 'phases out'

- Employment center set to open at Choctaw resort
- #### Costly confusion

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Read Our View
State needs governor's leadership on tort reform
County wants elected school board members
State needs governor's leadership on tort reform

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

No cement approval yet for prison; officials wonder why
Officials: Nuclear plants prepared for emergencies

Stateline.org

US: House Democrats' Climb Gets Steeper

The Clarksdale Press Register

Weather-warning options eyed

The Bolivar Commercial

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi

Leflore jobless rate at 13.5%

Hospital slow to get word out
Still wanting 40 acres and a mule
Why defeat incumbents?
Lawmakers work Easter because of poor planning
Revision to school funding brings districts fewer dollars
Grants for police, sheriff to be cut
Legislators approve highway program
Big guns turning out for Pickering
Only fair to pay Med for treatment
Make Medicaid cuts early in year
Conferees agree to compromise on public funding for abortions
Legislators approve highway program
Justice Department stops congressional map review
Musgrove blames lawmakers for Medicaid woes
Mississippi, Nissan to team for workshops about auto industry

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

Statewide redistricting is a direct result of legislative exploitation: Lawmakers ignore population shift to South Mississippi
Taylor questions Bush's war
Rep Erik Fleming Column: Legislative session winding down

The New York Times

Hyundai Joins Alabama Car List

The Washington Post

Anniston Star.com

Reuters.com

ABC News

Nissan Nudges Families to Move

WAPT - TV

Eminent Domain Case Attracts National Spotlight

WJTV - TV

Nissan Training - 04/2

WLBT - TV

Medicaid Budget Means Major Cuts