

Broadcast Voicemail for Capitol Centennial

History is not found only in events, but in structures as well. This is Governor Ronnie Musgrove. Tomorrow, June 3, we will celebrate the history of Mississippi as found in the beauty and grandeur of our state capitol. 2003 marks the 100th anniversary of this elegant structure, and I want to encourage you and your families to be a part of this celebration.

Please join us at 11:00 a.m. for a dedication ceremony, and again at 5:00 p.m. for a picnic on the Capitol grounds.

I look forward to seeing you all there.
