

Constitution Day Script

This is Governor Ronnie Musgrove of the great state of Mississippi where in the face of a national recession we are investing in education first, offering an internet-accessible computer in every one of our more than 32,000 public school classrooms, and raising teacher pay. Mississippi is home to Nissan, the only automobile manufacturing plant to open this year. Here in Mississippi we are focused on building good schools, good jobs and good communities.