The Dedication and Celebration of a New Home

Talking Points

- Good morning
- What a pleasure it is for me to be with you this morning as we dedicate and celebrate the completion of a home for the Williams Family.
- I had the honor of working alongside the Williams and many other caring, loving people who put hours upon hours of work into building this house.
- Many of us can remember moving into a new home. Home ownership brings with it pride and joy, along with great responsibility. I am sure that the Williams embrace that responsibility with much happiness and thanks to those who made the completion of their home a reality.
- One unique thing about the Williams' home is that every board that was nailed and every brick that was laid was done so with love and caring for this family.

- There are so many individuals and businesses and organizations to thank for their contributions to the Williams's home and to the creation of other Habitat homes.
- I am just thankful that I was able to be a part of such a wonderful effort.
- (Turn to the Williams Family)
- I wish you much happiness in your new home. It was built with love, and your love for one another and for your home will give you all great joy.
