Talking Points

(Be very upbeat! There will be a lot of former SkyTel and WorldCom employees at the job fair.)

- Good Morning!
- We want more for all Mississippians! More jobs. More opportunities.
- To give you a better quality of life.
- We are working to bring more quality, high paying jobs to Mississippi for you.
- Nissan Motor Company is only the beginning.
- Nissan has shown their faith in our state – in our people.
- They are investing in our state because Mississippi has invested in our people.
- We are now beginning to see the payoffs of those long-term investments.

- We will continue to invest in our people – in Mississippi businesses.
- We have a lot to offer other companies in the United States and around the world.
- Mississippi's number one incentive is her people.
- We have a quality workforce, full of dedicated, hard working employees.
- I want to assure you that we are working hard to create more outstanding opportunities for you and for every person across the state of Mississippi.
- We have tremendous faith in Mississippi businesses and Mississippi people.
- We are spreading the word about Mississippi's great opportunities, our great people and our great quality of life.
- Good luck.
