Talking Points

- Good Afternoon
- It is an honor for me to share in this special occasion today.
- The education you have obtained is the one thing no one can ever take away from you.
- Education is the key to all your future success.
- Education is the number one priority of my administration.
- I am proud of the work you have completed to be here today.
- Your family members are proud of you.
- Keep looking for more ways to improve yourself and new ways to “market” yourself to potential employers.

- You have many opportunities from which to choose in Mississippi.
- Make the most of those opportunities and take advantage of them.
- Good luck in everything you do.
- Keep looking forward to your future.
