

A Proclamation
By
Governor Ronnie Musgrove

WHEREAS, Mr. James H. Magee Sr. was a lifelong resident of the State of Mississippi and resided in Monticello; and

WHEREAS, Mr. James H. Magee Sr. was a loving husband to Marion Magee and father of three daughters: Louisiana State Representative Rosalind Magee Peychaud, Catherine Magee, and Regina Hudson, and one son, the late James H. Magee Jr.; and

WHEREAS, Mr. James H. Magee Sr. was dedicated to his state and his nation, having served in the United States Army until he received an honorable discharge; and

WHEREAS, Mr. James H. Magee Sr. served faithfully as a deacon at Oak Grove Missionary Baptist Church until his death and worked to make the community a better place for everyone; and

WHEREAS, Mr. James H. Magee Sr. passed away on September 18, 2002, at age 77 due to a heart attack—he will be remembered by those who knew and loved him:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ronnie Musgrove, Governor of the State of Mississippi, hereby proclaim September 21, 2002, as in the State of Mississippi.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Mississippi to be affixed.

DONE in the City of Jackson, September 20, 2002, in the two hundred and twenty-sixth year of the United States of America.

RONNIE MUSGROVE
