Psalm 41:7

All who hate me whisper together against me;
Against me they devise my hurt.=20

    It's a terrible thing to see and hear hate ride the wind. One = statement made in hate pulls another statement from the hearer. One = statement tends to lay a foundation and build up for the next statement. =
The first thing you know it takes on a life of it's own. It begins to = roll and build in strength and size as each person gets worked up higher and higher. Soon it presses those involved to either put up or shut up, that is a pride thing. Now they can't simply walk away from it without losing face. Now they feel driven to carry out the devised plan to make a man pay by bringing him down. Wild unregulated judgment in the hands of man can be so dangerous.

    Be careful with what measure you use to judge others because the exact same measure will come back to face you in the end.=20

In The Master's Service,

Bo Sullivan
