Second. The section "b" of said application is in the following words and figures

"(b)" The terminal points of the proposed Railroad are Hattiesburg, in the County of Perry, and Columbia in the County of Marion, both in the State of Mississippi."

Third. That the said ~~proclamation~~ proclamation of the Governor authorized the parties named in said application: "To organize a railroad corporation with the terminal points of the said proposed railroad to be Hattiesburg, in the County of Perry, and Columbia in County of Marion, and that the line of the said railroad shall extend through the p of Perry and Marion counties, lying between said points, in as direct a line as practicable all in the state of Mississippi."

Fourth. That during the month of February 1902, the said Pearl and Leaf Rivers Railroad Company, made application to this Honorable Commission for a change in the locality of main line and its western terminal, which application was heard and considered during regular term, on the 18th day of February, A D 1902, in the Capitol at the City of Jackson, Mississippi, the place provided by law for the meeting of the railroad commission, at which the members of the Commission were present; and at such hearing the said Pearl and Leaf Rivers Railroad Company, was authorized by order of this Honorable Commission, and spread upon the minutes thereof: "To change its western terminal from Columbia ty, State of Mississippi, the western terminal named in its charter, to a point on Pearl River, at or near Monticello, in the County of Lawrence, State of Mississippi, and change its line of road accordingly, so that when completed said road will extend from Osprey, in Perry County, Mississippi, to a point on Pearl River at or near Monticello, in the county of Lawrence, State of Mississippi—said line to extend through the towns of Perry, Marion, Covington, and Lawrence counties in the state of Mississippi, lying between said terminal points, and in as direct line as practicable." which said application and order of this Honorable body granting the prayer thereof, are of record in the office of the Honorable Secretary of State, and are referred to as a part of this application and are referred to as often as may be necessary for the purposes hereof.

The premises considered, the said petitioner, the Pearl And Leaf Rivers Railroad Company, prays this Honorable Commission to grant it a hearing of this application, and that at such hearing, it be authorized by order to extend its said line of road westward from its said present terminal, through the said counties of Lawrence, Lincoln, Copiah, Franklin, Jefferson and Adams, in the State of Mississippi, (provided the most direct practicable route touches all of said counties) to the said city of Natchez, as its western terminal,— said extension to be in as direct line as practicable.
