Amendment to Charter of the Bank of Winona.

Whereas, We, the stockholders of the Bank of Winona in call meeting this day, being more than a two-thrid majority of said stockholders, after due deliberation and consideration think that on account of high taxes imposed on large capital in banks and believing that we can do almost as much business with a capital of $50,000 as with $100,000 that it is for the best interest of this bank to reduce the capital thereof from $100,000 to $50,000, and it is the sense of this body that this reduction of stock be made, therefore,

Be it resolved, That we hereby instruct the officers of this bank to at once proceed to have the chartr of this bank so amended as to be allowed to conduct the business of the bank of Winona with a capital of $50,000 instead of $100,000; and to do such other matters in the premises as is provided by the laws of the State of Mississippi, and as advised by the Board of Bank Examiners of said State to accomplish the reduction of said stock.

Such payment to be made at such time as in the discretion of said officers of this bank not later than Jany 31st, 1916.
