4. The amount of authorized capital stock is: Two hundred and fifty shares of preferred stock of the par value of $100.00 per share, amounting in the aggregate to $25,000.00 and Three Thousand Shares of common stock without nominal or par value.

The holders of the preferred stock shall be entitled to receive, when, and as declared by the Board of Directors, dividends from the surplus or net profits of the corporation at the rate of seven per centum (7%) per annum and no more, payable at such date or dates and in such installments as may from time to time be fixed by said board; and such dividends shall be cumulative and shall be payable or shall be set apart before any dividends shall be paid upon or set apart for the common stock, so that if all accrued dividends shall not at any time have been paid upon or set apart for the preferred stock, such deficiency shall be fully paid or set apart, but without interest, before any dividends shall be paid or declared upon the common stock.

In event of any dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the corporation the holders of the preferred stock shall be entitled, before any assets of the corporation shall be distributed among or paid over to the holders of the common stock, to be paid in full the par amount of their shares, together with all accrued and unpaid dividends thereon; and if such liquidation be voluntary, then the holders of preferred stock shall be entitled to receive an additional amount equal to five per centum (5%) of the par value of such shares. The holders of the common stock shall be entitled to the exclusion of the holders of preferred stock, to share ratably in all assets of the corporation remaining after such payment to the holders of the preferred stock.

The preferred stock may be redeemed by the corporation in whole or in part on any dividend payment date at the option of the board of directors, upon not less than thirty days' prior notice to the holder of record of the shares to be redeemed given in such form and manner as may be fixed by the by-laws or by resolution of said board, by payment in cash for each share of stock so to be redeemed of One Hundred and Five Dollars (105) plus all unpaid dividends accrued thereon. Designation of the particular shares to be so redeemed shall be by the board of directors, in any manner they may deem proper, and their action shall be final. From and after the date fixed by such notice, unless the corporation shall fail to pay the redemption price, dividends shall cease to accrue on the stock to be so redeemed, and all rights of the holders thereof as stockholders of the corporation, except the rights to receive such redemption price, shall cease and determine.

Out of any surplus or net profits of the corporation remaining after full cumulative dividends on the outstanding preferred stock for all previous periods shall have been paid, and for the current dividend period shall have been declared and paid or provided for, then, and not otherwise so long as any of the preferred stock shall remain outstanding, dividends may be declared and paid upon the common stock in such amounts and at such time as may be determined by the board of directors.

The Corporation shall have the right to sell all or any part of its assets upon being authorized so to do by vote of the holders of a 2/3 majority, both of the preferred stock and the common stock which shall be outstanding.

The Corporation shall have the right to treat the person in whose name any share of stock is registered as the owner thereof, for all purposes, and shall not be bound to recognize any claim of any other person thereto, except as may be provided by the laws of Mississippi; nor shall any stockholder have any preemptive or preferential right of subscription to any shares of any class of stock of the corporation, now or hereafter created, unless such rights be granted by the board of directors, and then only to the extent so granted; and acceptance of certificate of stock shall constitute an agreement by the holder to all the terms and conditions of this charter.

5. The sale price per share of stock without par value shall be $1.00 provided the board of directors shall have authority to change such sale price from time to time.

6. The period of existence of the corporation is: Fifty years.

7. The purposes for which the Corporation is created are: To purchase, construct, lease, or otherwise acquire and operate, and to sell, trade or otherwise dispose of one or more amusement and refreshment stands in the State of Mississippi, and to make, prepare and sell all sorts of foods and soft drinks in such places; and to own, use or operate public or private parking spaces in or near said stands; and to buy, own, lease, sell or otherwise acquire or dispose of all kinds of real and personal property incident to any of said businesses.

The rights and powers that may be exercised by the corporation in addition thereto are those conferred by the provisions of the Chapter on Corporations in the Code of Mississippi of 1906, and all additions and amendments thereto.

8. The number of shares of each class of stock necessary to be subscribed and paid for before the corporation shall commence business is: Ten shares of common stock and 24 shares preferred stock.

9. This charter is not for a street railway, telegraph or telephone company.

AMENDMENT TO THE CHARTER OF INCORPORATION OF THE LAUREL OIL & FERTILIZER COMPANY.

"BE IT RESOLVED, That Section Seven of the Charter, with its amendments as now existing, be eliminated, and there be substituted therefor the following, namely:

SECTION VII.

ARTICLE 1. The total number of shares of the Company's authorized capital is Five Thousand (5000) shares, of which One Thousand (1000) of the par value of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars each are to be preferred stock, and Four Thousand (4000) shares of the par value of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars each are to be common stock.

ARTICLE 2. From time to time either class of stock may be increased or decreased, or one or more additional classes of stock may be created in accordance with law, with such preferential special or qualified rights as may be lawfully determined and permitted; Provided, however, that the amount of Preferred stock now authorized shall not be increased and no different or additional class of stock shall be created which shall be on a parity with or preferred thereover, in respect of payment for dividends or of payments on liquidation or dissolution, if there shall be filed with the corporation by the holders of record of twenty five per cent (25%) in objection thereto within twenty (20) days after mailing to the then Preferred stockholders of written notice of any such proposed action.

ARTICLE 3. All persons who shall acquire stock in this corporation shall acquire the same subject to the provisions of its charter, and consent specifically thereby to all therein contained, especially the voting rights, and bind by such consent all subsequent holders thereof.

ARTICLE 4. Holders of the Preferred stock shall be entitled to receive, when and as may be lawfully declared, dividends at the rate of eight per cent (8%) per annum and no more, payable annually, semi-annually or quarterly as the directors may elect. Such dividends on the Preferred stock must be paid in full before any dividends shall be paid upon or set apart for the Common Stock, and shall be cumulative so that if any default shall be made in the payment of said dividend, the deficiency shall be fully paid or set apart, but without interest, before any dividends shall be paid or declared upon the common stock. When there is no default upon the Preferred stock, subject to its prior rights dividends may be declared when lawful by the directors upon the Common stock.

ARTICLE 5. In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the corporation, the holders of the Preferred stock of the corporation shall be entitled, before any of the assets of the corporation shall be distributed among, or paid over to the holders of the common stock, to be paid in full the par amount of their shares, together with an amount equivalent to all dividends that should have been paid, at the rate of eight per cent (8%) per annum, without reference to whether there were amounts appropriable to dividends or not, and if such liquidation of the corporation be voluntary, an additional amount equal to two per cent (2%) of such par amount. The holders of the Common stock shall be entitled, to the exclusion of the holders of the Preferred stock, to share ratably in all the assets of the corporation remaining after such payment to the holders of the Preferred stock.

ARTICLE 6. So long as any of the Preferred stock shall be outstanding, the corporation shall not mortgage any of its fixed assets unless authorized by the written consent of the holders of two-thirds (2/3) in amount of the Preferred stock then outstanding; but this provision shall not apply to purchase money mortgages or property acquired subject to mortgage.

ARTICLE 7. The Preferred stock may be redeemed in whole or in part on any dividend payment date, at the option of the Board of Directors, upon not less than sixty (60) days prior notice to the holders of record of the Preferred stock given in such manner as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, by payment in cash for each share of the Preferred stock to be redeemed one hundred and two per centum (102%) of the par amount thereof and in addition thereto an amount equivalent to all unpaid dividends that should have accrued irrespective of whether earned or not. If less than all the outstanding shares are to be redeemed, such redemption may be made by lot or pro rata as may be prescribed by resolution of the Board of Directors. From and after the date fixed in any such notice as the date of redemption (unless default shall be made by the corporation in the payment of the redemption price), all dividends on the Preferred stock thereby called for redemption shall cease to accrue and all rights of the holders thereof as stockholders of the corporation, except the right to receive the redemption price, shall cease and determine. Any purchase by the corporation of shares of its preferred stock shall not be made at prices in excess of said redemption price.

ARTICLE 8. Exclusive voting rights shall vest in the Common stockholders, except as provided in Section 194 Constitution 1890, provided, however, that in case the corporation default in the payment of the preferred dividend to the extent of eight per cent (8%) per annum, then and in every such case the holders of the Preferred stock, until such default shall have been cured by the payment of the dividend, shall have the right to vote at all meetings of the stockholders upon every question; but if all such accrued dividends shall have been paid, then thereupon all power of the holders of Preferred stock to vote shall cease, subject, however, to being again revived upon any such subsequent failure or failures. The holders of the Preferred stock shall not be entitled to notice of any meeting of the stockholders except when they shall have the right to vote thereat. The Preferred stockholders expressly consent to this section and agree to be bound thereby, and such stock is issued upon this express condition.

ARTICLE 9. Any unissued shares of stock of any class may be issued from time to time by the corporation in such manner, amounts and proportions, and for such consideration as shall be determined by the Board of Directors and as may be permitted by law; and all issued shares shall be deemed fully paid and non-assessable and the holders of such shares shall not be liable thereunder to the corporation or its creditors.

ARTICLE 10. The corporation shall be entitled to treat the person in whose name any share is registered as the owner thereof for all purposes, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to, or interest in, such share on the part of any other person, whether or not the corporation shall have notice thereof, save as expressly provided by the laws of the State of Mississippi.

This amount to be issued in Preferred Stock and to be sold to the present stockholders at par on the basis of $\frac{1}{2}$ share of Preferred Stock to each of common stock that they now hold. It was further authorized that in case any holders of the common stock do not buy their pro rata part of the Preferred Stock within 60 days from date of this meeting that it can be sold at par to others. This stock to be issued according to the following provisions:-

The Company is authorized to issue one hundred fifty shares of First Preferred Stock, with a par value of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per share; and three hundred shares of Common Stock having par value of $100.00 per share.

The First preferred stock shall be entitled to cumulative and participating dividends at the rate of eight per cent (8%) per annum out of first earnings, payable annually on the first day of each year, beginning January 1st, 1931, and an equal percentage of any earnings after payment of 10% on Common stock.

3. The domicile is at Jackson, Mississippi.
4. Amount of capital stock and particulars as to class or classes thereof: The capital stock shall consist of First Preferred stock, whereof there shall be 100 shares, each of the par value of $100.00, with the rights and obligations declared under paragraph (a), and Common stock, whereof there shall be 1,000 shares, without nominal or par value, but not to be sold in excess of $1.00 per share, with the rights and obligations herein declared under Paragraph (b); all shares shall have the rights and obligations declared in Paragraphs (1) to (5) both inclusive.

(1) Any class of stock may be increased or decreased, as by law permitted, or one or more additional classes of stock may be created, with such preferential rights as may be determined, provided the amount of the First Preferred stock shall not be increased, and no class of stock shall be created which shall be on a parity with or preferred over it, in respect to dividends, liquidation, or otherwise, nor shall the rights thereof be in any way altered, if written objection thereto shall be filed with the corporation by the holder of record of twenty-five per cent in value of stock then outstanding, within twenty days after mailing written notice of such proposed action to said Preferred stockholders at the addresses shown on the stock register.

(2) All persons who acquire stock herein shall take the same subject to the provisions of this charter. A statement of the rights and obligations shall be set forth on the back of each certificate, and no shareholder shall have the right to sell or transfer any share, unless the corporation shall have waived in behalf of the stockholders a preferential right of acquisition which is hereunder conferred. Any stockholder desiring to transfer shall give notice thereof, in writing, to the President of this corporation, and the Common stockholders herein shall have the right, within twenty days after receipt of such notice by the corporation to purchase upon the terms submitted, and the stockholder desiring to sell may not sell to any person other than upon the terms so thus to the corporation submitted. Should proceeding be begun to divest involuntarily any stockholder of his stock, this right in stockholders thus to purchase shall be protected, and no transfer shall be made by the corporation of stock unless and except there shall have been offered to the Common stockholders this right to purchase in the manner herein declared, but when the President or Vice President shall have transferred any stock, this transfer shall be conclusive of compliance herewith. This right shall appertain to the shares of Common stock pro rata, provided participation is demanded immediately upon receipt of notice, otherwise it shall be available to only those shares electing to purchase. Immediately upon receipt of an offer to sell, notice shall be sent by Registered mail to the address of each stockholder, as shown of record. Failure to send or receive, however, shall not invalidate any sale, and any transfer made hereunder shall when made, be as valid as if this section of the charter had not been enacted.

(3) No stockholder shall have any preemptive right of subscription to any class of stock or obligations convertible into stock, other than such, if any, and at such prices as the directors may from time to time determine.

(4) Acceptance of stock shall be a contractual assent, effectually waiving absolute right of disposition and all preemptive and preferential subscription rights otherwise existent.

(5) The rights, privileges and obligations of the respective classes of stock are

(a) First Preferred Stock.

1. Each share of First Preferred stock shall be fundamentally and in all particulars co-equal with every other share thereof.

2. The holders shall be entitled to receive, when and as may be lawfully declared, cash dividends at the rate of eight per cent per annum, payable annually, semi-annually, or quarterly, as the board of directors may elect, which dividends shall be cumulative, and the deficiency therein, if any, shall be fully paid without interest before any dividends shall be paid upon the common stock.

3. The First Preferred stock may be retired in whole or in part on any dividend payment date, at the option of the Board of Directors upon not less than thirty (30) days' notice given in such manner as may be prescribed by the directors by payment for each share of said stock at 110% of the par value thereof, plus an amount equal to eight per cent (8%) per annum of the par value of such shares from the date of the issue thereof to the date of payment, less the total amount of eight per cent (8%) cumulative dividends theretofore paid thereon, notwithstanding the corporate assets may contain no surplus or net profits. If less than all the outstanding First Preferred shares are to be retired, such retirement may be made by lot or pro rata, as may be prescribed by the directors. From and after the date fixed in such notice as the date of retirement, unless default shall be made by the corporation in the payment of the retirement price all dividends on the First Preferred stock thereby called for retirement, or to the extent of the retirement, if not fully retired, shall cease to accrue, and all rights of holders thereof, except as aforesaid, as stockholders of the corporation, except the right to receive retirement price shall cease, if in full, or if pro tanto, then to that extent. No purchase by the corporation of shares of its First Preferred stock shall be made at prices in excess of said retirement price, and no First Preferred stock held by the corporation shall be in any manner voted.

4. So long as any of the First Preferred stock shall be outstanding, the corporation shall not mortgage any of its effects unless by vote or written consent of the holders of two-thirds (2/3) in amount of the First Preferred stock then outstanding. But this provision shall not apply to purchase money, mortgages or property acquired subject to mortgage.

5. Each share of First Preferred stock shall have one vote.

(b) Common Stock

1. Each share of Common stock shall be fundamentally and in all particulars co-equal with every other share thereof.

2. The Common stock shall be subject to the right of the First Preferred stock.

3. No dividends on the Common stock shall be paid or set apart until the Preferred stock shall have received all amounts of cumulative dividends where to it shall be entitled.

4. Each share of the Common stock shall have one vote. And after the Preferred stock shall have been paid, the amounts therefor provided all of the remaining assets of the corporation shall be appropriable to and the property of the Common stock.

5. Number of shares for each class and par value thereof: 100 shares of the par value of $100.00 each of cumulative First Preferred stock, and 1,000 shares of common stock, without nominal or par value, which shall not be sold at a price in excess of $1.00 per share. Business may be begun when 500 shares of the Common stock shall be subscribed and paid in.

The holders of preferred stock shall be entitled to receive, when and as declared by the Board of Directors, dividends from the surplus or net profits of the Corporation, at the rate of seven per centum per annum, and no more, payable annually or semi-annually at such dates as may from time to time be fixed by the Board. Such dividends on the preferred stock shall be payable before any dividends shall be paid upon, or set apart, for, the common stock, and shall be cumulative, so that if in any dividend period dividends at the rate of seven per centum per annum shall not have been paid upon or set apart for the preferred stock the deficiency shall be fully paid or set apart, but without interest, before any dividends shall be paid or declared on the common stock.

CHARTER AMENDMENT
WRIGHT LAUNDRY COMPANY.

Sections four and five of said charter now reading:

"Section Four: Amount of capital stock, Ten Thousand ($10,000.00) Dollars."

"Section Five. The par value of shares is One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars," shall hereafter read:

The capital stock of this corporation shall consist of First Preferred stock, whereof there shall be Seventy Five Thousand (75,000) shares, each of the par value of One ($1.00) Dollar, with the rights, privileges and obligations hereinafter set out under paragraph (a); and Common stock, whereof there shall be Seventy-five Thousand (75,000) shares, without nominal or par value, with the rights, privileges and obligations hereinafter set out under paragraph (b). All shares shall possess the rights, privileges and obligations declared in paragraphs One to Six, both inclusive, which provide the particular rights of the respective classes.

1. From time to time any class of stock may be increased or decreased, as by law permitted, with such preferential, special or qualified rights as may be lawfully determined and permitted, provided, however, that the amount of the First Preferred stock now authorized shall not be increased and no different or additional classes of stock shall be created which shall be on a parity with, or preferred thereover, in respect of payment of dividends and/or payment on retirement, liquidation or otherwise; nor shall the rights of said First Preferred Stock be in any way added to, varied and/or altered, if written objection thereto shall be filed with the corporation by the holders of record of twenty five per cent (25%) in value of any class of Preferred stock now authorized and then outstanding, within twenty (20) days after mailing written notice of such proposed action to said Preferred stockholders at the addresses shown in the stock register, provided no notice need be given to any class when its rights, privileges and obligations are in no way affected by such proposed amendment.

2. All persons who shall acquire stock herein shall take the same subject to the provisions hereof, but nevertheless a statement of the rights, privileges and obligations shall be set forth on the back of each certificate, through a reference thereto upon the face thereof.

3. No stockholder shall have any pre-emptive or preferential right of subscription to any class of stock or to any obligations convertible into stock, or any right of subscription of any character other than such, if any, and at such price as the Board of Directors, in its absolute discretion, from time to time may determine, wherefor authority is here conferred.

The directors may, when lawfully authorized, in accordance herewith and subject hereto, issue the stock or obligations convertible into stock without offering this or any part thereof to the stockholders; granting rights of subscription shall not be a waiver hereof, and the acceptance of stock shall be a contractual release effectually waiving any preemptive or preferential rights which otherwise existed.

4. Any unissued shares of stock may be issued from time to time by the corporation in such manner, amounts and proportions, and for such considerations as may be determined by the Board of Directors and as may be permitted by law, provided the Common Stock shall not be sold for more than One Dollar per share nor the First Preferred stock for more than One Dollar per share, and all issued shares when there shall have been received therefor that fixed in accordance herewith by the Board of Directors, shall be fully paid and non-assessable.

5. Any shares of stock may be issued from time to time to any of the employees, (including officers and directors) on such basis of classification and eligibility, with such payment therefor at such price, and with such credits for compensation for services as may be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors, as fully paid and non-assessable.

6. The rights, privileges and obligations of the respective classes of stock hereunder created and/or to be created, are as follows:

(a) First Preferred stock:

(1) Each share of first Preferred stock shall be fundamentally and in all particulars co-equal with every other share thereof.

(2) The holders shall be entitled to receive when and as may be lawfully declared, cash dividends at the rate of eight (8%) per cent per annum, payable annually semi-annually, quarterly or monthly, as the Board of Directors may elect, which eight per cent (8%) dividends shall be cumulative, so that if any default shall be made in the payment of any dividend, the deficiency shall be fully paid or set apart, without interest, before any dividends shall be paid or set apart upon any other classes of stock, and no further or other amount shall be thereon paid.

(3) In the event of any forced liquidation, the holders of the First Preferred stock shall be entitled, before any of the assets of the corporation shall be distributed among or paid over to the holders of any other class of stock, to be paid in full the par value of their shares plus an amount equal to eight per cent (8%) per annum of the par value of such shares from the date of the issue thereof to the date of the payment, less the total amount of cumulative eight per cent (8%) theretofore paid thereon, notwithstanding that the corporate assets may contain no surplus or net profits; and if the liquidation of the corporation be voluntary and not enforced, the holders of the First Preferred stock shall be entitled to the amount hereinbefore set forth, plus five per cent (5%) of the par value of each share then to be retired.

(4) The first preferred stock may be retired in whole or in part on any dividend payment date at the option of the Board of Directors, upon not less than sixty (60) days' prior notice in writing to the stockholders, given in such manner as may be prescribed by the directors, by payment for each share of said stock at 105% of the par value therefor plus an amount equal to eight per cent (8%) per annum of the par value of such shares from the date of issue thereof to the date of payment, less the total amount of dividends theretofore paid thereon, notwithstanding the corporate assets may contain no surplus or net profits. If less than all the outstanding First Preferred shares are to be retired, such retirement may be made by lot or pro rata, as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors. From and after the date fixed in any such notice as the date of retirement, unless default shall be made by the corporation in payment of the retirement price, all dividends on the First Preferred stock thereby called for retirement, or to the extent of the retirement, if not fully retired, shall cease to accrue, and all rights of the stockholders hereof, except as aforesaid as stockholders of the corporation, except the right to receive the retirement price, shall cease and determine, if in full, or if pro tanto, as then to that extent. No purchase by the corporation of shares of its First Preferred stock shall be made at prices in excess of said retirement price, and no First Preferred stock held by the corporation shall be in any manner voted.

(5) So long as any of the First Preferred stock shall be outstanding, the corporation shall not mortgage any of its fixed assets or pledge any of the shares of stock owned by it in any affiliated company or any subsidiary company, or create any funded debt, unless authorized so to mortgage, pledge or create such debt, by a vote or written consent of the holders of two-thirds in amount of the First Preferred stock then outstanding, but this provision shall not apply to purchase money mortgages, or property acquired subject to mortgages.

(6) Each share of the First Preferred stock shall have one vote.

(b) Common Stock.

(1) Each share of Common Stock shall be fundamentally and in all particulars co-equal with every other share thereof.

RECORD OF CHARTERS 29-30-STATE OF MISSISSIPPI

- (2) The common stock shall be subject to the rights of the First Preferred stock.
 (3) No dividends on the Common stock shall be paid or set apart until the Preferred stock shall have received all amounts of Eight per cent (8%) cumulative dividends where to it may be entitled.
 (4) Each share of Common stock shall have one vote.

Said present stock of said corporation may be exchanged on such terms as the Directors may determine for that now authorized by this amendment.

The holders of the Cumulative Preferred Stock shall be entitled to received and be paid, when and as declared by the Board of Directors, dividends out of the annual net profits or surplus of the corporation, payable at the rate of Seven (7) per cent per share and on the dividend payment dates fixed, before any dividends shall be declared, paid or set apart for payment on the common stock.
